United States Bankruptcy Court Southern District of New York

Debtor Residential Capital, LLC et al.,
Case No. 12-12020 (MG)

Borrower Claims with Insufficient Documentation:

Fannie Kendrick Dietrich I was taken through the entire loan modification request^{ed} information and application process. At no time after supplying this information was I contacted as to the outcome. Several phone calls and emails from me were never replied or responded to.
At the beginning of this ~~bankruptcy~~ ^{hearing} I sent documentation requested from this court/attorney. Since time has passed I lost my original paper work and the emails I recieved from GMAC\ALLY are in my trash

→ ALL transactions concerning this loan were done through e sign Yes, I did print these documents for my personal records. I copied and sent co/borrowers certification authorization and loan lock in rate, ect...

Please allow this claim because original documentation has been misplaced. Richard Anderson from GMAC knows what they did and restitution of over 2 years with no refinance is a folder on the PC I have. What I want addressed... I assumed that the documentation I sent was sufficient and I didn't anticipate needing to copy any of them. Upon contacting an attorney I was not able to afford legal representation. I therefore trust God to work it out for me. If I was denied this loan out of discrimination or selectively I truly pray a law is created to protect further applicants.

That information was enough to get this claim started for me in the ~~first~~ first place. I am 57 yrs old I recieve a pension from General Motors I work part time for minimum wage at Bona Vista as a teaching assistant for special needs children.
I qualified for this loan. What can a mere citizen due other than rely on a judge to decide if an injustise was done.
